Mountain Railway. Interlaken is a beautiful and popular summer resort in the heart of the Bernese Oberland. The Mountain Railway (parts of which are on the rack-and-pinion system) is an excellent method of viewing the district. It runs from Interlaken Ost station (1,865 feet) through the entire course of the Oberland. There is also a rack-and-pinion railway (gradient 1 in 4) from the neighbourhood of Interlaken to the Schynige Platte (6,463 feet).
